Forecast for Thursday 27 Oct 2022

Weather: Cloudy with outbreaks of rain during the morning, heavy at times. These will become lighter and gradually clear during the morning to give a mainly dry day with bright intervals and just the odd light shower persisting. Some clear spells developing in the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 10% at first, increasing through the morning to become 70% by afternoon.

Low cloud and visibility: Extensive cloud above around 200-300m to start the day. Cloud slowly lifting and breaking during the morning but continuing to affect summits above 600m at times in the afternoon. Outside of cloud visibilities generally good, though dropping to a few km at times in early rain.

Meteorologist's View

Generally southerly winds will see slopes exposed to that direction seeing the worst of the low cloud and poor visibilities, and route finding could be tricky in places during the morning.
